

Sister Leona Watroba – 75 Years

Sister Leona entered our Congregation on September 8, 1934 from St. Mary Parish in Hammond, IN. Sister served as a Sacristan from 1936 until 1937 and 1940 until 1947 in Illinois and Pennsylvania. She taught at St. Casimir in Johnstown, Pennsylvania from 1937 until 1940. From 1947 until 1971 she was an x-ray technician trainee and x-ray technician in South Dakota. She served as a nurse from 1971 to 1972 in Indiana. Sister performed many duties at St. Joseph Home, Chicago, IL from 1972 until 1983 when she moved to the Motherhouse in Lemont, IL where she was the director of housekeeping from 1983 until 1986 and local treasurer from 1986 until 1997. In 1997 Sister retired, yet she continued to work in the OLV library until 1999 and continued to do some light work in the OLV library until 2007.