Vincent cared for young children at Guardian Angel Day Care, Chicago, Illinois, and from 1958-1990 Sister taught 2 ½ and 3 year olds. While residing at Guardian Angel Day Care, Sister served as the local superior from 1978-1979, assistant superior from 1979-1985 and board secretary from 1985-1986. In 1990, Sister began ministering at St. Joseph Home, (Chicago) primarily in the Life Enrichment Department. Sister was famous for the singalongs she led in the Memory Support Unit. Sister ran bingo and brought Chester, the rabbit, around to visit all the residents. Sister also brought the 'cookie cart' to all the residents. She ministered as a lector and served as the local secretary until 2009 when she retired to Our Lady of Victory Convent in Lemont, Illinois.
