“Take up Your Cross”

The Way of the Cross

Introduction:

Hymn ("Stabat Mater"):

Jesus, Lord, condemned, defiled,
May we too be meek and mild
As we tread your holy Way.

Leader:        Let us walk the Way of the Cross in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
ALL:            Amen.
Leader:        We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you
ALL:            because by your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.
Leader:        Whoever wishes to come after me
ALL:            must deny oneself, take up his cross, and follow me. (Mk 34)
Leader:        We are always carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus,
ALL:            so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our body. (2 Cor 4:10)
Leader:        God of love and mercy, you so loved us that you sent your only begotten Son to be one like us except sin that we may life and have it to the fullest measure possible. Open our minds and hearts, make believable our words and our actions, that we may conform ourselves to the poor and crucified Christ Jesus, so that, as we are constantly being given up to death for the sake of Jesus, the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. May we consider the sufferings of this present time as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us in the resurrection, through Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi on Mt. LaVerna before receiving the Sacred Stigmata:

My Lord Jesus Christ, I pray you to grant me two graces before I die:

The first is that during my life I may feel in my soul and body, as much as possible, the pain which you, dear Jesus, sustained in the hour of your most bitter Passion.

The second is that I may feel in my heart, as much as possible, that excessive love with which you, O Son of God, were inflamed in willing enduring such suffering for us sinners.

Christ our Lord.

ALL: Amen.

You will show us the path to life, abounding joy in your presence, the delights at your right hand forever. (Ps 16:11)

With you is the fountain of life, and in your light we see light. (Ps 36:10)

Hymn (“Old 100th”):

“Take up your cross and walk with me
Come, share the paschal mystery.
Be one with me in word and deed
And free yourself from slavery.”

Leader: Lord Jesus crucified,
ALL: have mercy on us.
Leader: Worthy are you, O Lord,
ALL: for you were slain and with your blood you purchased for God those from every tribe and tongue, people and nation. (Rev 5: 9)

ALL: to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing. (Rev 5:12)

like his,

and the courage to proclaim the risen Lord and his Gospel faithfully. Help us acquire the perspective of faith when we encounter opposition to your Word, so that we may be united with your Son in his humiliation and suffering for your great glory, through Christ our Lord.

ALL: Amen.

Can unjust judges be your allies,
those who create burdens in the name of law,
Those who conspire against the just and condemn the inocent to death?
No, the Lord is my secure height,
my God, the rock where I find refuge. (Ps 94:20-22)

When the burdens of life become too heavy and cause me to fail, help me to get back up. Whatever my circumstances, allow me to stand in the circle of your light and love — and share it with others, through Christ our Lord.

In your arms was placed our Brother,

Sustain your heart, and nerve your arm.

ALL: we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. (Rom 6:5)

Leader: God, Creator of all, it is very moving to stand near Jesus’ mother, Mary, as she holds the body of her dead son before allowing it to be prepared for burial. So many people die or are killed with no family present to console them or to embrace their bodies. Help me to understand — and act accordingly — that everyone I encounter belongs to your holy family and is my sister or brother through Christ our Lord.

ALL: Amen.

Like a herd of sheep they will be put into Sheol,
and Death will shepherd them.
Straight to the grave they descend,

ALL: we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. (Rom 6:5)

Leader: Heavenly God – who said through your prophet Isaiah, “Can a mother forget her infant, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even should she forget, I will never forget you.” – it is not easy for us, to see the truth about ourselves, the world in which we live or our relationship with you. Help us to walk steadily along the path that leads to truth, the truth that will set us free, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and in the name of Christ our Lord.

ALL: Amen.

How long must I carry sorrow in my soul,
grief in my heart day after day?
The Lord is close to the brokenhearted,
saves those whose spirit is crushed.

Leader: For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his,

ALL: we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. (Rom 6:5)

Leader: My God, my God, how awesome it is to stand at the foot of the Cross with Mary and see your Son die. He is the New Adam who has said yes to you, and his Mother is the New Eve. Saying yes to you, even to the moment of death, is essential to be a beloved disciple. I believe this, but please help me to say it and mean it. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

ALL: Amen.

I was caught by the cords of death;
the snares of Sheol had seized me;
I felt agony and dread. (Ps 116:3)

Teach me to walk alongside Jesus and take his yoke upon my shoulders so that, with his help, I can carry my burdens and help others carry theirs. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

ALL:  Amen.
Blessed be the Lord;
marvelously he showed to me
his mercy in a fortified city.

Leader: For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his,
ALL: we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. (Rom 6:5)

Leader: God of mercy and compassion, we are learning that forgiving does not mean forgetting, but rather remembering so that we will not allow the hurt to be repeated. At the same time, I find it difficult to forgive others and even myself. Help me to learn from the example of my crucified Lord how to truly forgive. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

share your love with others. Please give us the ability to recognize people’s needs and to help them in whatever ways we can and thereby show to others the loving and redeeming face of Christ our Lord.
